Hudson Economic Development Corporation Hosts Candidate Forum

The Hudson Economic Development Corporation (HEDDC) is sponsoring its first-ever candidate forum, Friday, October 2, beginning at eight o'clock in the morning, at the Country Club of Hudson, 2155 Middleton Road, Hudson.

All six candidates for Hudson City Council At-Large - Hal DeSaussure, Tom Elicson, Bryan J. Holmes, John Logan, Kristina Daley Roegner, and William Wooldredge - were invited to participate.

"The purpose of this forum," says HEDDC president Jill Bacon Madden, "is to give candidates for city council an opportunity to address issues related to economic development that affect community sustainability and livability - issues vital to the future of Hudson. These important issues include community planning, land use, infrastructure, environmental sustainability, streets and drainage, parks, historic preservation, and cultural enhancements."

The moderator will ask each candidate the same opening question, which has been submitted in advance, followed by a series of questions. Members of the audience and the news media will then have an opportunity to ask candidates additional questions.
